In the current political and economic climate, with increasing fears of local and foreign terrorist activity, it is imperative to have the right security and protection at your side.

We intend to change the current security offerings in South Africa, by providing affordable, high quality security solutions to aspiring corporate companies and entrepreneurs.

ANUBIS
PROTECTION SERVICES

OUR MISSION

Anubis Protection and Security Services is grounded on providing safe, reliable, effective and efficient security to all. We intend to meet the needs of our stakeholders. Our service delivery is a key asset to the business.

Our mission is to provide the ultimate all-in-one security and protection solution for all South Africans.

We need to achieve our mission by:

- Understanding you and your families needs.
- An international standard of protection governed by international laws.
- A customized approach to ensure we do not hinder your personal space.

“The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others” – Gandhi

OUR VISION

To provide a holistic approach to protect you, your family, and your most valued assets.

To ensure that this is gained by a non-invasive approach to your personal lifestyle and experience.

OUR VALUES

PEOPLE: We value our people and the service they are able to convey to our clients. Our members are our greatest asset.

SERVICE: Every client deserves a string and consistent high level of service offering.

SAFETY: The safety of our clients and environment are of great value to us.

“To conquer oneself is a greater victory than conquer thousands in a battle” – Dalai Lama

Our mission is to provide best solutions that will help everyone. Anubis VIP Protection and Services is grounded on providing safe, reliable, effective and efficient security to all that require it and meets the needs of all the stakeholders. Service delivery is key.

The Directors of the business hold over three decades of experience in offering a strict high level of security, intelligence and protections to exclusive profiled clients.

Our team is comprised of former police agents, soldiers, bodyguards and task force employees who have undergone extensive background checks before employment. They are well groomed individuals who fit our “high standards” motto and we ensure that they develop into well-trained and presentable security intelligence officers.

Our employees are also fully trained and built to be the masters of Risk management and Close Protection Service. They are also registered with the Private Security Industry Regulations and Security Industry Authority.

We also strongly believe that a motivated Security Intelligence Officer will always give his/her best for our clients. We encourage personal growth in our employees through training and development in order to provide excellent service.

Majority of our C.P.O's are ex-military member's who served in the South African National Defence Force. After successfully completing their military training he joined the Military Police Division where he served as a deep cover operator, he then moved to Special Forces and was deployed throughout the African continent in various operations including anti-terrorism missions where they gained various skills on the ground after being consistently being exposed to dangerous and hostile environments where many soldiers have lost their lives.

DEFINITION OF VIP PROTECTION

VIP Protection means providing executive protection to anyone that may need it. The type of people that ask for VIP security protection may include; celebrities, politicians, dignitaries, and business.

(CPO's), or bodyguards, keep clients safe from unwanted attention or physical harm. They are responsible for assessing security measures and providing discreet surveillance. Their work includes: Protecting their clients from threats and physical violence.

EXECUTIVE PROTECTION:

Executive protection (EP), also known as close protection, refers to security measures taken to ensure the safety of VIP's, celebrities, executives or other individuals who may be exposed to elevated personal risk because of their employment, celebrity status, wealth, associations or geographical locations.

EXECUTIVE PROTECTION

Without disruption with comprehensive peace of mind is what you can expect from our close protection. Our highly qualified staff entirely understand the position of protecting, not merely the principle in person, but also their reputation, brand and image.

Our Close protection services provide a comprehensive approach to close protection. In other words, every characteristic that needs to be considered from a risk perspective will be addressed. This will often include home security assessments, in-country risk reports and travel abroad advisories.

Visiting executives from abroad form a large part of our day-to-day projects. There is no company that comprehends executive protection and the logistics required the way we do. At Anubis Protection Services we measure our relationships with our clients over many years, which has resulted in unreserved dedication and loyalty to our clients.

Unparalleled efficiency is achieved by combining years of police experience, commercial experience, both locally and internationally, as well as intensive training in tactical firearms skills, advanced driving, intelligence gathering, investigation and paramedical expertise. Anubis Protection Services are able to render services all over South Africa and worldwide. Our knowledge of local South African conditions is unsurpassed.

The lives of various world leaders are regularly placed in our hands and they, as well as numerous other clients, can attest to the fact that we are committed to service excellence. We stand ready to relieve the private individual of any fear for his or her safety resulting from criminal or personal threat.

All our personnel are carefully vetted, our bodyguards primarily have police and military backgrounds and are recruited from most reputable close protection trainings institutions. All our security operatives are armed with required and relevant equipment and on request we also provide armoured vehicles.

Each client undergoes an extensive risk and threat analysis to ensure we provide you with the most comprehensive protection. Depending on the risk profile, we will provide independent operatives or teams dedicated to protecting, serving and educating our clients on relevant and effective integrated security tactics and strategies tailor-made to address their security risk factors.

ASSETS IN TRANSIT

Asset In Transit Protection. High-value goods are often at their most vulnerable when in transit, and the need for protection today is paramount as numerous security threats face valuable freight as it moves around the world.

Transportation of various clients' assets discreetly and safely, allowing you to go about your business safely, risk free and with peace of mind.

Anubis provides bespoke solutions to physically protect valuable assets such as property, aircraft and belongings. Our consultants can liaise and formulate a plan to provide a complete package for your individual requirements. Threat and risks can be significantly reduced by correct implementation of a risk assessment and practical physical security plan to ensure the safety and security of your assets and personnel.

The threats that businesses face when transporting cargo and goods via freight is now greater than ever, with high value goods being transported throughout the World, protecting them can be a daunting task.

The modern threat of criminal activity that businesses face every day when transporting both high and low risk goods can create complications. As modern technology moves forward and the world's lust for the latest technology increases, criminal elements will increase their efforts to steal and hijack high value assets and products.

The constant movement of transport services requires special support solutions to help our customers maintain their schedules and meet passenger's high expectations and our experience and knowledge will result in decisive and effectively contingencies to any security situation.

Our dedicated transportation team has extensive experience and an in-depth understanding of this fast moving sector and focusing on the criteria that matter most to our transportation customers.

Whether transporting by road, rail, sea or air our security solutions provide the support and infrastructure you need to trace, track and trail valuable goods. We will put in place personnel and innovation to help you monitor your assets every step of the way.

We provide completely bespoke security operations based on our client's exact specifications, working at home or abroad, and in both hostile and non-hostile environments. Anubis provide a door-to-door service or integrate seamlessly into other operations to ensure the safe delivery of our client's valuables.

We provide asset transportation services for both the private and corporate clients. Our services range from simple cash deliveries to transportation of highly valued antiques and jewellery. We personally chauffeur you and your valuable merchandise or can follow you in one of our own, unmarked vehicles.

SERVICES

SECURITY SURVEY AND PLANNING

We provide comprehensive security surveys which are the foundation of our operational plans. Starting with a threat assessment, we review the client's vulnerabilities, their capabilities, and their desired outcome. This information is developed into robust security plans for implementation by the client, their third party security provider, or us.

SECURE ASSET TRANSPORTATION

We provide all forms of asset transportation including; secure convoy monitoring. We provide highly trained security staff, working to rigorous operating procedures to deliver the optimum secure transportation solutions. Transportation is complimented by global tracking, a quick response team and insurance.

ASSET PROTECTION

We recognise that most business will not have the resources or expertise available in house to mitigate risk so will turn to outsourcing, thus appointing a reliable partner as a cost effective solution. Anubis is familiar with working in challenging situations and accumulated a great deal of experience and been instrumental in providing 'turn-key' solutions to significant start-up operations, within South Africa and overseas.

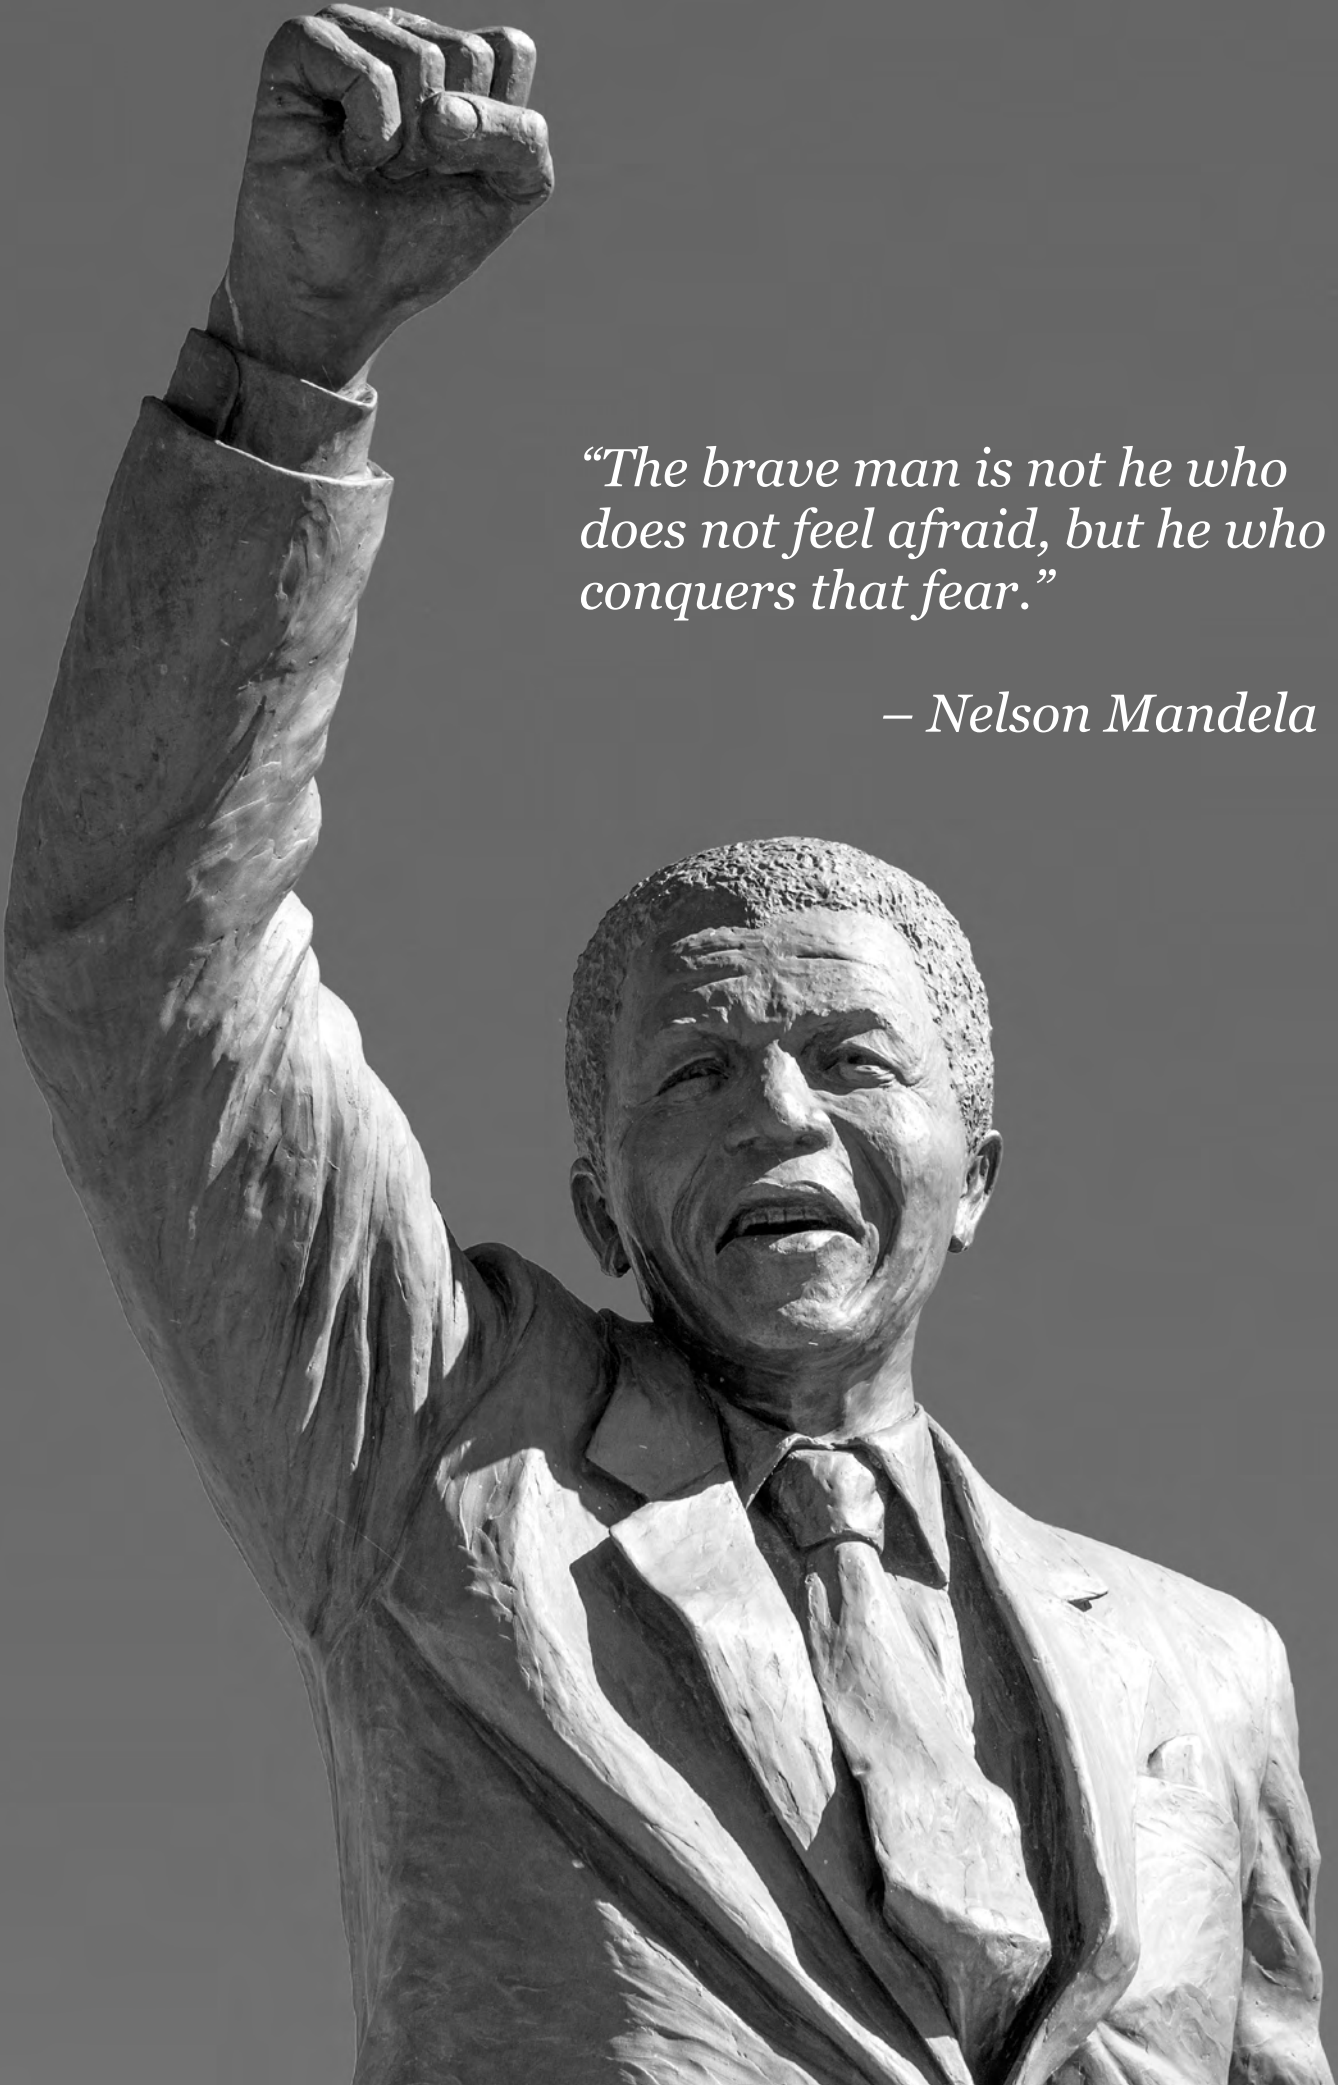

Global Tracking

To complement our asset protection and crisis management services, we provide global tracking. Satellite tracking is supported by our control centres. At any one time we know where an asset is, and should an incident occur (and the panic button be activated) we can react immediately. There are many levels of reaction to an incident, all of which are provided by our response services. These solutions are often supported by an appropriate insurance policy.

Our Asset Protection and Asset Transport Security Services Include (but is not limited to):

- Sensitive documents
- Driving you and your assets to your destination
- Following logistical vehicles as you transport assets
- Protecting cash deliveries, jewellery, antiques, gold, art and any other valuable asset overtly or covertly
- Court appearances (Incl. general and high profile court trials)
- Transport of People displaying violent/aggressive behaviour
- Supervised contact visits

All of our high risk transportation measures, procedures and special measure are discussed in confidence with our clients prior to transportation or protection taking place. By carrying out this consultancy, we are able to assess the main factors, such as the potential threats and understanding the client's needs, requirements and requests.

LOGISTIC SUPPORT

Anubis can provide both marked and unmarked vehicles so that a visual deterrent can be created, or a very discreet and under cover service, our management and executive team will liaise directly with our clients to ensure their exact needs are met so we can fit in around their business. All of our escort vehicles that include Mercedes, BMW and Land Rover are designed and equipped to be high powered response vehicles, with satellite tracking, communications and HD video cameras installed, which stream live images from around them to a secure third party control room, where they are viewed and recorded in real time.

Operational activities can range from the management of site traffic, the screening and delivery of goods within a secure environment, or provision of transport for people, plant and equipment to a site. Getting the right combination of these logistics activities is vital to the successful delivery of any project.

The operational environment can contribute to the complexity of a logistics challenge often requiring additional factors to be considered such as access to restricted areas or the security and storage options available. A detailed understanding of these is essential before a viable logistics solution can be designed and implemented.

We understand that every project, event, site and operation provides a logistics challenge which is different and all require solutions to meet their specific needs. Our flexible approach enables us to combine the expertise of different logistics management fields such as; transport, storage, vertical and horizontal material movement and people flow. Our team and security operatives are fully trained in the protection of valuable goods and experienced in transporting assets both short and long distances. Anubis operatives have received expert training to deal with every scenario, which can take place in regards to transporting valuable assets. Their vast training and experience has provided them with the skill and manoeuvrability to provide optimal protection and safety to the asset. Our security operatives are bonded in multiple countries; therefore, we can transport valuable asset across borders if necessary. We can provide multi-guard teams to transport the asset when going long distances allowing operatives to securely switch out at designated points along the way. There are primary and alternate points and operatives randomly radio (encrypted) ahead to the next RVP point to change relay points to increase the security of the transport.

INTERNATIONAL
